

Memo of April 21, 2010 from Weezie (Louisa Sands King Fraser) to all Rufus Fielder's living progeny, spouses of said progeny and significant others

Subject: 'Fielder Family Reunion II' (Thursday, July 29 – Saturday, July 31, 2010)
(also referred to as 'The California Reunion')

Enclosures: RSVP's and return envelope

Though the reunion is 3 months away, Dave and I have begun sprucing up the backyard! We are looking forward to hosting a barbecue (carnivore and vegan friendly) on Friday, with lawn games (croquet, badminton, and... golfers: bring your putters and pitching wedges), a canopy of art supplies for 'budding artists', garden touring and some of Lee and Chelle's Sangria, all starting at 4 p.m. Don't forget sweaters and jackets, as evenings can bring cooler weather. Reunion t-shirts will be issued by Lynn – she will be e-mailing everyone in June re: orders.

For those that have settled into our environs by Thursday and have a couple of free hours, we can meet at my house and go mid-day to see my solo show at the Quicksilver Mine Co. art gallery located near Santa Rosa - call or e-mail me. Everyone will receive a postcard announcement in June which gives address, hours and days open if you prefer to include it during some Sonoma County wine tasting or

I would like to propose that Thursday evening be set aside for impromptu or planned gatherings of individual families within 'the clan'. My family may be persuaded by me to go to 'Old Mexico' (707-539-2599) for dinner – our favorite Mexican restaurant where we would sometimes go with our kids when they were little kids. And if more of you show up, all the better! Other favorite restaurants in Santa Rosa include Sea Thai Bistro (707-528-8333), Ca'Bianca (707-542-5800), Bruno's (707-569-8222), and in nearby Kenwood, Kenwood Restaurant (707-833-6326). (Reservations advised)

In a not-too-lengthy 'Business Meeting' with Buzz over the phone last week, the subject of golf came up, and within a couple of minutes we had a list of 'reunionites' to create at least two back-to-back foursomes for Saturday morning tee times at our club. (RSVP enclosed)

Last but not least, I am proud to announce that the Patriarch of the clan, Buzz (Frederick Allen Fielder, jr.), will preside as Master of Ceremonies at the 'No-Host Farewell Dinner' Saturday evening. (RSVP enclosed)
